Press Release

Amsterdam, July 11, 2005

The Internet Names Authorization & Information Center (INAIC) Council Advisory Committee is very pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Henk Doorenspleet to the INAIC World Council.

Henk Doorenspleet (1961) has been dedicated to telecommunications for over 17 years and is a telecom technology and market generalist. His current assignment is Industry Analyst for the Telecoms and Media Team of Rabobank International. This team manages and develops Rabobank's exposure in the T&M industries. Besides his assignment with Rabobank, Henk teaches telecommunications topics to various groups of students and advises companies on communications matters.

Mr. Doorenspleet writes columns and articles on an ad hoc basis for several publications and is co-author of a Dutch textbook on computer networks in the second half of the 1990s. Mr. Doorenspleet has also been an active member of the Association of Dutch Corporate Telecom Users.

Before joining Rabobank's International Telecoms and Media group in 2001, Mr. Doorenspleet contributed to the telecommunications development for the Dutch operations of Rabobank. After receiving his Bachelor's in Electrical Engineering with a focus on telecommunications Mr. Doorenspleet started his career at the Energy Research Center of the Netherlands and later joined KPN before moving on to Rabobank.

Mr. Doorenspleet will be an excellent addition to the INAIC Council. Mr. Doorenspleet is eager in helping establish the organization's legitimacy and standing in the community.
